Dear Friend:

I am extremely pleased to extend my sincerest thanks for your valued support of the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund.

Recently, I was invited to serve as Chairman of the Memorial Fund. I accepted with a great sense of responsibility and honor. I am deeply troubled by the fact that the rule of law in our nation is in disrespect. We must never forget that more than 20,000 law enforcement professionals have sacrificed their lives in order to preserve the rule of law and to safeguard liberty.

And, now, it is beyond my comprehension that a growing number of officers are being targeted for assassination. We must strengthen our resolve to end this hatred and violence toward law enforcement because there is no better way to honor the fallen than to stop the falling. I want to be a part of the solution to this growing crisis threatening officer safety and public safety. Serving as Chairman of the Memorial Fund has provided me with that important opportunity.

Another reason that motivated me to accept the Chairman duties was the National Law Enforcement Museum, which is now under construction and scheduled for completion in 2018. This Museum is absolutely essential if we are to strengthen the crucial bond between law enforcement and the public they serve. Through the Museum's interactive learning experience, millions of visitors will better understand the vital role that law enforcement plays in our society.

There are very challenging times ahead for law enforcement and the Memorial Fund. I am thankful we have caring partners like you to help us successfully meet those challenges. I encourage you to visit our website at www.LawMemorial.org to learn more about the work we are doing, or to make an end of year donation. In the meantime, have a safe and joyful holiday season!

Sincerely,

JOHN D. ASHCROFT
